

Q. When did Fernbank's Martinis & IMAX® start?

A. Martinis & IMAX® started in 1996. The program actually began as a small event in The Star Gallery with around 50 people in attendance every Friday. Due to a dramatic rise in popularity, the event was moved into the large atrium known as the Great Hall, where it now hosts an average of 1,000+ people every Friday, January to November.

Q. What is the dress code for Martinis & IMAX®?

A. There is not a dress code but generally the attire is casual to dressy casual.

Q. How long are IMAX® films?

A. Films last about 45 minutes. We recommend arriving at least 20 minutes prior to your film start time in order to park, pick up tickets and be seated before the film begins.

Q. Can I tour the Museum when I come to Martinis & IMAX®?

A. No. During Martinis & IMAX®, only those exhibitions accessible from the Museum's Great Hall are open.

Q. Does my film or Museum ticket include the cost of a martini?

A. No, martinis are available for purchase at our cash bars located in the Great Hall. Check out our special martinis and featured wines, beer is also available. Special options are available for groups.

Q. Can I take food and drink into the Theatre?

A. Beverages are allowed in the Theatre but, food is not permitted.

Q. Can I reserve a table when I come to Martinis & IMAX®?

A. No. Reserved tables are not available. Seating is strictly on a first-come, first-served basis. Reserved tables are only available for groups who make arrangements, in advance, for a semi-private area.

Q. Is there an ATM or a place where I can use my credit card?

A. Yes. An ATM machine is located in the Lobby on Entry Level, near the restrooms. We also accept credit cards throughout the Museum, including at the bars and in The Fernbank Café. You may also choose to run a tab at the bars.

Q. Are children allowed to attend Martinis and IMAX®?

A. Martinis and IMAX® is appropriate for guests 21 and older.