

Dear prospective FUN volunteer,

Thank you for your interest in the Fernbank Ultimate Naturalist (FUN) volunteer program at Fernbank Museum of Natural History. FUN volunteers are essential to many of our educational programs, as well as helping to provide many one-on-one educational experiences for our visitors. We are currently seeking volunteers to start during the summer of 2018, and become part of our June 2018 – May 2019 FUN Volunteer team.

To apply, fill out all parts of this packet and return them by Thursday, March 1, 2018.

- Application (including an essay)
- Two reference forms. Reference forms must be completed by adults who are not related to you. One reference must be from a teacher (science teacher preferred) or counselor. Homeschool students may use a non-relative reference from scouts, music lessons, sports, etc.

Please read the Frequently Asked Questions, found at the end of the application, before applying. Incomplete applications will not be accepted, so please enter your information on all forms carefully.

Return all materials via e-mail or postal mail:

Fernbank Museum of Natural History, Attn: FUN
767 Clifton Rd N.E.
Atlanta, GA 30307

Email: FUN@FernbankMuseum.org

Once your complete application is received, all of the materials will be reviewed. If you are selected for an interview, you will be contacted directly by a Fernbank Education Staff Member through email. Please make sure you provide legible and accurate email addresses and phone numbers; multiple email addresses are ideal in case any flag emails as spam or blocks them. You must be accompanied by a parent or guardian for your interview. Interviews take place at the very end of March and beginning of April. Read the interview tips listed in the Frequently Asked Questions section before attending your interview. If you are selected for the program after the interview, training starts when school is out at the end of May or beginning of June.

Thank you for your interest. We look forward to receiving your application!

DISCLAIMER AND SIGNATURE

Please check the following to show that you have read and understand:

- I understand that there is a onetime $50 fee to participate in this program that covers training materials. This fee is due after being accepted to the program and before new FUN volunteer training. Special activities outside of regular volunteering shifts, such as field trips, might have additional fees or conditions to participate. Fee may be waived for those that qualify – contact the FUN Vol. Manager upon acceptance to the program if needed.
- I understand that an interview may be scheduled in April to help determine if I will be accepted into the program.
- I understand there are mandatory training sessions to attend in order to become a FUN volunteer.
- I hereby grant permission to Fernbank Museum of Natural History to use my likeness in photograph(s) or video for any purposes relating to the Museum, including, but not limited to, promotion, public relations, marketing and the Museum's Web site. The Museum may use the photograph(s)/video without further permission from me and without any compensation. Additionally, I acknowledge the Museum's right to alter, crop or treat the photograph at its discretion.

FUN Volunteer Frequently Asked Questions

When can a youth become a FUN volunteer?

Youth can apply to be a volunteer during spring recruitment. New FUN volunteers are only accepted at this time and not all applicants are accepted into the program. Applicants who applied in previous years, but were not invited into the program are encouraged to reapply. FUN volunteers accepted into the program begin volunteering in June.

How old do you have to be to volunteer?

All interested FUN volunteers must be a minimum of 13 years old by September 1, 2018 to apply. New applicants should be a maximum of 17 years old by June 1, 2018. FUN Volunteers who turn 18 during the FUN year (June 2018 through May 2019) remain in the volunteer program until the end of the season. All interested applicants 18 and older may apply to participate in our adult volunteer program.

What type of commitment is required to be a FUN volunteer?

FUN volunteers commit to one year, which runs from June through May of the following year. FUN volunteers are required to dedicate a minimum of 45 hours throughout the year, or one shift per month during the school year and two shifts per month during the summer (June and July). Shifts are generally 3-4.5 hours long, but can vary for special activities. All FUN volunteers must attend a new volunteer orientation and additional trainings throughout the year may be required for other opportunities. New FUN volunteers must also pay a onetime $50 fee to participate, which helps cover materials. This fee will be collected after being accepted into the program and before your initial training. The fee may be waived for those that qualify – contact the FUN Vol. Manager upon acceptance to the program if needed.

If accepted, can I volunteer for more than one year?

Once accepted into the program, FUN volunteers can continue volunteering in following years. Every year a recommitment form is sent to all active volunteers. FUN volunteers who are interested in continuing with the program agree to commit an additional 45 hours for the coming June-May year, and return the recommitment form. Those continuing with the program do not have to pay an additional $50 fee.

Those who turn 18 years old or graduate High School over the course of the year, age out of the program at the end of May. Volunteers who age out of the FUN program, but would like to keep volunteering with the museum, may join our adult volunteer program.

What kind of benefits do FUN volunteers receive?

FUN volunteers receive ongoing educational experiences, training in science communication, training for various science topics, a volunteer uniform t-shirt, discounts at the museum stores, discounts in the museum café, free admission to Fernbank Museum, and free admission to the Giant Screen Theater. Educational and social activities may also be offered at various times, as well as recognition for achievements, Presidential Service Awards, and a thank you gift for every 50 hours worked. FUN volunteers work side by side with real Fernbank Museum scientists, gain public speaking skills, presentation skills, and learn about natural history in a unique setting. In addition, a few advanced opportunities are only extended to FUN volunteers who have achieved 50 hours or more of service with the museum.

Do FUN volunteers have a uniform?

FUN volunteers are required to wear the FUN t-shirt and name badge when volunteering, which will be provided at training. Nice, non-athletic shorts/pants/skirts and shoes are also required.

I've been selected for an interview, what can I expect?

Plan to dress up a little to make a good impression. Bring a parent or guardian with you as we'd like to speak to them before or after your interview. Practice interviewing ahead of time with an adult or a friend. Be enthusiastic! If you're unfamiliar with Fernbank Museum, learn more about us at www.fernbankmuseum.org.

Also, plan to answer the following questions:

- Why do you want to be a FUN volunteer? (more than just "it will be fun")
- Why are you a good candidate to be a FUN volunteer?
- What skills do you expect to learn as a FUN volunteer?
- How do you expect guests want to be treated when visiting Fernbank Museum?
- Be able to identify and discuss your strengths and skills.

Most candidates who are invited for an interview are accepted into the program. The program is very competitive however and we are unfortunately not able to accept everyone who applies or interviews each year. Candidates who are not accepted or invited for an interview this year are encouraged to reapply next year.
