

Animal Homes and Habitats

Animal adaptations are special body parts or behaviors that help animals survive in their environment. Find the following animals and determine how their unique adaptations help them survive.

Octopus

Terrapin turtles

Great egret

Questions to get you started:

Where do they live?

How do they move from place to place?

What do they eat?

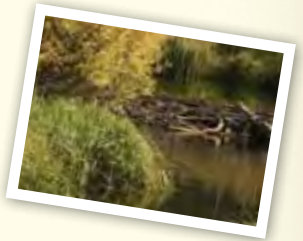

Could they live in a different environment?

How do they escape from predators?

Animal Homes and Habitats

Find the following animals and determine how their unique adaptations help them survive.

Beaver

Bear

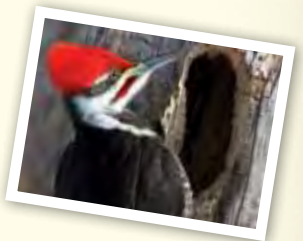

Red-tailed hawk

Anole

Woodpecker

Fox

Skunk

